

Letters to Worldnet Grace Ministries

September & October 2015

The Bible origin messages are a phenomenal mix of scholarship and spirituality.

{The Bible – origin & transmission}

I am recommending the series to everyone.

Are there 2 left to post?

Stuttgart, Germany

Thank you for your kind words and for spreading the Good News to others.

Studies 5 and 6 contained a lot of repetition for the purpose of review, and, as such, did not contain sufficient new information to warrant posting them as new studies.

*May God bless you as you continue to explore the supernatural process
God has used to deliver His word to us.*

Thank you for the excellent Bible origin series.

What could have been a tedious presentation was enlivened by the masterful storytelling.

Many academicians have been drawn to these studies and scores have been saved.

Amazing.

Munich, Germany

I've just left our weekly Bible study and I must tell you what joy I've experienced.

The entire spiritual realm has been opened to me.

I'd never known one existed.

Iceland

The expression "life changing" is such a cliché.

So please forgive this cliché: These Bible studies are indeed life changing.

What change could be more profound than to be transferred from the kingdom of darkness into the kingdom of Jesus!

That is my travelogue - to borrow the phraseology of the Acts lessons -- tremendous.

{Acts – A Spiritual Travelogue of Personal Portraits}

I thought the professor's greatest contribution to my life was teaching me French!

Obrigado professor

Mogi das Cruzes, Brazil

I realized what an answer to prayer when a colleague referred me to this site -- specifically "The Bible origin" series.

I had been a longtime admirer of the work performed by the Committee -- Aland and Metzger.

I was saddened that their work seemed to have been abandoned as a scholarly rhetoric.

This series picked up the critical work and had restored their legacy -- actually making it much more accessible to the public than these noted scholars were able to do.

Excellent work

Extremely thanks

You brought the worst moment of my life when I realized that I,

A RELIGIOUS, GOOD PERSON WAS GOING TO HELL!

Fortunately, quickly you brought the best moment of my life when I realized that Jesus died for my sins.

I simply trust in Him and believe He died for me!

Yes -- new life indeed.

The “Life of Jesus” introduced me to the understanding of Jesus as God and man -- and as my Saviour! {“Life of Jesus” series}

The subject of the New Testament textual restoration has always been relegated to the ivory towers of scholars and professors.

This Bible origin series is the best I have ever seen in that the lessons bring the issue down to the layperson and also providing solid information to scholars.

Every Christian should listen to every lesson.

Warendorf, Germany

God bless the professor!

His teaching opened up French literature to me many, many years ago

Now I know THE WORD as Savior!

Rio de Janeiro, Brazil

Such a pleasure to enjoy my favorite professor once again!

I was saved during my time in the US but have agonized as my husband has shown zero interest.

The “Pre-History” and “History” messages have him captivated his interest – to the point of copying to his phone to listen as he drives.

I am so thankful that the Gospel is presented in every lesson and that it is described correctly in its clarity and simplicity.

Je vous en remercie!

The newest Acts study -- Wow!

Wow!

Montreal, Canada

I listened to the Acts lesson "The Power of Radical Religion" and was stunned.

I cannot explain how powerful this is.

I have tried to describe it to people but I am unable to describe it.

Once I convince someone to listen they are speechless.

Everyone who reads this - IF YOU ARE CONCERNED ABOUT TERRORISM –

please listen to it. At least twice.

New York

I find myself in awe after listening to the Radical Religion message in the Acts series.

I am encouraging everyone I know, Christian or not, to listen and meditate.

The Gospel is the only way out -- as was forcefully presented.

United Kingdom

The presentation on radical religion hits home.

How may I obtain permission to make copies and distribute?

Thank you for the insightful Spirit empowered message.

England

Please feel free to make copies and distribute as you wish.

We do ask that you label whatever media you use for the copies with “RadicalGrace.com”

thereby identifying the source of the audios.

Thank you for your encouragement and for spreading the Good News to others!

We've so thoroughly enjoyed the history Bible lessons in our group.

Thanks to you

The Bible origin messages are a masterpiece.

The subject of the NT MSS restoration is highly complex and longtime scholars grapple with how to assimilate and present it.

These lessons indicate that the speaker has indeed assimilated the issues and presents it in a most enjoyable manner.

Doors have been opened to the Gospel.

Munich, Germany

Excellent work on the Bible manuscript presentation.

Never found anything like this.

Useful for scholars and understandable to the layman and replete with spiritual insight

Absolutely amazing.

These lessons from a familiar voice have brought light to so many.

Even men are drawn to the studies.

We are so blessed by the Acts lessons - seeing these men with all their flaws.

ACTS #27 AND #28 LESSONS ENTITLED RESPECTIVELY:

“The Power of RADICAL RELIGION, Civil Government, & the Gospel” and “Paul is delivered safely to Caesarea”

The Bible origin series established intellectual credibility.

Now the lesson on radicalized religion has created shock and awe.

I listened after three people encouraged me.

Munich, Germany

The lesson on radicalized religion has struck a nerve in the UK.

The solution - the Gospel - is so obvious

I can't fathom why it has not been set forth prior to this.

United Kingdom

The messages on radical religion were shockingly on point. {Acts #s 27 - 29}

Many are intrigued and listen with rapt attention.

Excellent Bible studies.

I was directed to the messages about terrorism and was stunned to discover my prof from years ago from whom I learned to speak French and to interpret literature.

He brings the same style to the Bible.

Much pleasure is being obtained from the Gospel explosion in Acts.

Indeed quite a Gospel explosion here.

Most supernatural.

Listened to “Life of Jesus”. I did not like it.

So to “History”. Very good talking.

“Ruth” series. Very beneficial.

As a longtime admirer of the persons and work of Nestle, Aland and Metzger,

I had resigned myself to the belief that their legacy had evaporated.

The Bible origin lessons have restored and even invigorated their work.

Very few are left who have the capability of performing this great service to the body of Christ

I am in unabashed awe at the presentation of the Bible origin.

Q & A on the following page

Dear Johnny,

I hope this e-mail will find you well.

First of all I would like to thank you for your great teachings.

My wife and I have been so blessed and deeply rooted in the unmixed doctrine of grace (Jesus).

I strongly believe that we cannot lose our salvation and there is no loss of rewards and rewards for what we have made in this life.

I always try to find explanations for the difficult passages that seem that we can lose our salvation.

When I heard your teaching on the Bematos part 2, Col 1:21,

I realize that the verse 23 seems to imply the fact that we have to believe till the end.

A bit like 1 Peter 1:9 (reminds me 1 John 1:9)

How do you interpret this verse?

Was it in the original Greek text?

What is written in the Nestle Aland version?

Many thanks for your help!

Be highly favored

Switzerland

Johnny's response on the following page:

Thank you so much for writing and for your encouragement.

You obviously are resting securely in God's grace and have digested the Bible origin series.

You addressed the following passage:

²¹ And although you were formerly alienated and hostile in mind, engaged in evil deeds, ²² yet He has now reconciled you in His fleshly body through death, in order to present you before Him holy and blameless and beyond reproach—

²³ ~~if~~ since indeed you continue in the faith firmly established and steadfast, and not moved away from the hope of the gospel that you have heard, which was proclaimed in all creation under heaven, and of which I, Paul, was made a minister.

Colossians 1:21-23

The word unfortunately translated "if" is actually the word "since"

Therefore, not only is the verse NOT A WARNING ABOUT LOSING OUR SALVATION –

it is an affirmation that we cannot!

Kindest regards,
Johnny
