January & February 2012

January 2012

Your website is such a blessing from God. I listened to you for years on the radio.

My husband (unbeliever, French, agnostic) would listen occasionally with some interest.

I happened to be listening to some of the Joshua studies and he became very interested. Now he is eagerly listening to the History series and openly expresses that he anxiously awaits the next installment!

Rouen, France

I never listen to preachers. Through a bizarre series of events I listened to your message on Picasso. I was very intrigued so I then listened to The Dark World of Postmodernism and found my world.

{History of the World #s 52 & 55}

Now I have trusted in Jesus as my savior and am devouring everything on this website.

San Luis Obispo, California

I have enjoyed the history lessons so much.

The "I am Coming Quickly" sermon stirred my heart. Yes, Come Lord Jesus!

{History of the World #56}

El Paso, Texas

As a practicing psychiatrist, I applaud you for the succinct presentation of Freud, Jung and Joseph Campbell. Excellent assimilation into the Biblical worldview.

Fairfax, Virginia

Pastor,

We have completed our studies through the studies through the consolidation era. We have learned how Hamites such as ourselves have a tendency toward idolatry - witchcraft, astrology.

The congregation received this with acceptance because you have so carefully highlighted the gifts and accomplishments of Hamites.

Now we need your guidance as to where to proceed. Should we continue on with the history studies or into something new?

This week we were considering your message on Psalm 23.

Africa

Johnny's reply:

Yes, please teach the Psalm 23 for your next session.

Now I want you to begin the 3 part series on the "Blessing Place of Christ". I want you both to thoroughly digest the study, read all the passages referred to. Then send me your thoughts before you begin teaching. This lesson is fundamental for spiritual growth.

May God continue to bless you.

February 2012

Just a brief word of thanks.

My husband (Italian, spiritually disinterested) and I (a believer, American) live in Italy. My husband speaks very good English and he has thoroughly enjoyed your messages, especially on the Italian Renaissance, which is "so happens" is his field of expertise at _____, where he is a professor.

{History of the World #44}

He has recommended your studies to his colleagues, who agree that your presentations of Michelangelo and Leonardo da Vinci are the only really new perspectives they have seen in years. I thank God that you faithfully give a clear Gospel presentation in every one of your messages.

After he expressed an interest in the Gospel I looked through your site and was thrilled to find that you gave a simple yet profound Gospel message -- in very good Italian!

Praise be to God he has been born again and has become an avid evangelist throughout the campus! Thank you and may God bless you!

Italy

As an art major, I was deeply moved by your study on the Expressionist painters, especially the Van Gogh "Starry Night".

{History of the World #51}

I am a believer in Jesus but have never felt a strong desire to evangelize. Now I feel free to share your studies to my unbelieving friends.

Washington

Greetings in Jesus' name from Taiwan, where I have just returned from China as an English teacher.

I am happy to report that your studies have struck a chord within the university community.

The trigger is the studies on early man - the fossil record disproving evolution, and the distribution of Ham, Shem and Japheth throughout the world. The clear logic and demonstration of evidence impresses the educated Chinese people.

{History of the World #s 4-6, 8, 9}

God is indeed working!

Taiwan

I have heard and read many end times messages over the years. Many have been extremely informative and clear. However, most of them become very depressing, focusing on the disastrous events of the Great Tribulation.

Your lessons are the first I have ever really enjoyed because you keep the focus on Jesus, keeping our eyes on Him. So they are always uplifting.

{History of the World #s 56 - 69}

Albany, New York

My husband is an unbeliever who has never been hostile to Christianity, nor adverse to my attending church and Bible studies. He has just not been interested.

Your studies on Joshua drew him in and got his attention. He greatly enjoyed listening to them. Now he is giving rapt attention to your sermons on future events.

{History of the World #s 56 - 69}

Thank you so much for faithfully presenting the Gospel so clearly in every message

Portland, Oregon

Comments about "Van Gogh and Starry Night"

{History of the World #51}

"Awesome" Miami, Florida

"Stirring" Calgary, Alberta, Canada

"Spoke to my heart" El Paso, Texas

"I listen to it over and over" Des Moines, Iowa

"Truly inspired and inspiring" Fort Worth, Texas

"A masterpiece of message befitting the masterpiece of art" Maine

I have been blessed beyond my ability to verbalize by your teaching. I have realized how much I have had to unlearn about the Christian walk.

Understanding the truth about the Blessing Place has radically transformed my life. So many Christians never really connect with Jesus because of apprehension about our meeting with Him.

{“History of the World” #58; “Blessing Place of Christ” #s 1 - 3}

I thank God for the truth, and for His communicating truth to you!

Gary, Indiana

This site is such a blessing for home school.

My children are actually fascinated by Shakespeare! {History of the World # 45}

P.S. So am I!

New Hampshire

Oh thank the Lord for you and your sermons on end times.

{History of the World #s 56 - 69}

You scared my husband to the cross! As you say, whatever it takes. Praise the Lord!

New Jersey

My husband went to be with the Lord six months ago. I have so looked forward to seeing Him again.

And now what a thrill to know that our reunion will be here on earth and we will be caught up together. I had never heard that before. What a comfort!

{History of the World # 56}

Pensacola, Florida

What a blessed day for our family. My husband and son have been born again by listening to your sermons on Revelation. Thank you so much for including an evangelistic message in every study!

{History of the World #s 56 - 69}

Las Vegas, Nevada

Dear Pastor Johnny

So much good news to report to you.

_____ and I spent much time listening to your Blessing Place lessons, absorbing the truths therein. We then presented these messages over several weeks.

{“Blessing Place of Christ” series}

Oh, Lord Jesus. Hearts of the believers were deeply blessed moving some to tears. And how the Lord moved to bring the message of no judgment to the unbelievers. And now many more have been saved - some from witchcraft and idolatry.

More good news. Two of our sisters who were saved by the Lord at Christmas time have moved back to their hometown in the hearth of the occult. They report to me that there are no believers in the area. They feel a deep burden to begin a work. However they are mindful of God's divine order for men and women, as you presented, and we taught from your Great Chain of Being study.

{History of the World #51}

So their desire is to begin a local church with you as their pastor as you have so faithfully served us. They want to write to you to that effect. However they asked if we would contact you as to your feelings in this respect.
