

Letters to Worldnet Grace Ministries

March & April 2012

Note: Some of the letters below make references to our having sent out mp3 players with our messages stored on them. We would like to clarify that we have not sent out any products or materials, nor do we have the resources to do so. We are indeed very grateful for those anonymous donors who are providing these items and not taking the credit for their generosity.

March 2012

I am the pastor teacher of a Southern Baptist church in Knoxville.

Your teachings on grace have shaken my world. I am re-learning fundamental truths of which I was in error going back to my days in seminary.

I am sure you encounter much resistance. Keep hanging in there, brother!

Knoxville, Tennessee

Your Bible studies have been such a joy. I keep asking “Why have I never heard any of this before?”

I was so excited to learn about what really happens at the “Blessing Place” of Jesus - that there is no judging of our works.

{History of the World #58; Blessing Place of Christ #s 1 - 3}

I was anxious to share this with my women's' Bible study. I was shocked at the hostility I encountered! Have you experienced any of this - and if so, what is the reason???

Fairfax, Virginia

Your expose' of what is happening in Europe was shocking. There is no doubt the European leaders are openly worshiping Lucifer!

{History of the World #s 61}

Thank you for carefully, painstakingly presenting the evidence without sensationalism

London, England

As a pastor of an evangelical Bible church in Philadelphia, I find myself constantly stretched beyond my comfort level by your fresh, insightful teachings. I hasten to point out that the stretching is a good thing!

I have re-examined long held beliefs about such matters as the so-called Judgment seat of Christ. I am totally convinced that you are correct.

{History of the World #58; Blessing Place of Christ #s 1 - 3}

Your end times study is the most balanced, Jesus-centered presentation I've ever heard. It is greatly appreciated.

Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

Your two-part sermon on Hebrews chapter 12 has transformed my life. That passage has always troubled me and led me to the belief that God was always led me to the belief that God would punish me when I did wrong. And yes, you're right. We say "discipline" but we mean "punishment".

{Hebrews series #s 6 & 7}

This was a powerful picture of God training me in love, preparing me for life and keeping me from punishment - not causing it!

All my love in Jesus goes out to you.

Atlanta, Georgia

Dear Father in Jesus,

Your words came from God to me. I now understand and believe that Jesus died for my sins and I will be with him forever. And also with you.

As you know, Shakespeare said, "If there be nothing new but that which hath had been before..."

As a professor of British Lit I have often felt that way. "There is nothing new to say about Shakespeare". As my wife from West Virginia would say, "Boy was I wrong".

I am somewhat stodgy and rarely get excited but I have to say I have been thrilled by your lectures, not only on Shakespeare, but also on literature in general, art and music. You are providing keen analyses which are greatly respected by many of us in the academic environment.

{History of the World #44 - 52}

I even purchased a Bible and even begun to open it! As my daughter would say "LOL".

Great work. Congratulations!

New Jersey

I love the sermon "Do animals go to heaven?" {I Thessalonians series #2}

I was so thrilled to learn that my dear friends, my pets, will be with me in heaven!
Only pet lovers will understand.

Thank you so much for taking time to present what the Bible says!

Dear Pastor,

I am so happy that I finally have Christian teaching which I am not embarrassed to pass on to my unbelieving friends. Thank you for the labor which I know is behind these messages.

Above all thank you for the simple, clear Gospel message which permeates every sermon!

April 2012

Dear friends back home,

I'm in a remote area in _____. We have virtually no contact with the outside world. We mostly monitor a few very sensitive installations. It is indeed stressful.

For some of us the only bright spot in our lives is the podcast of your messages which our captain has made available to us. What a time of joy as we are transported out of here into the heavenly realm where God is in full control.

{History of the World #s 56-58, 62, 64, 74}

You continually direct our thoughts to Jesus our Savior. At least two have been saved.

And the Thibodeaux jokes are just great. It's hard to explain what a hearty laugh does for our spirits. PFC {classic Cajun surname} insists you are a Cajun - says you sound exactly like one!

May God bless you for the joy you bring to our lives

USM

Just a quick note to tell you that your studies of early man and the fossil record have shaken my anthropologist husband to the core.

Quote: "This is devastating". {History of the World #s 1 - 10}

I'm praying daily for him that he will keep listening.

California

Dear Christian friends back home,

Your weekly messages have been bringing hope to many of us a long way away.

We especially are encouraged as we see that the United States Military is under the authority of God Himself!

Here is my story:

I was invited to a dinner at _____. After the dinner the hostess played a message from you about the war between good and evil.

{History of the World # 68; Pre-History of the World #s 13 & 14}

As I listened my world changed. I realized in horror that I was on the dark side of evil. And even more horror as I asked myself "How can I get out?"

Then as a soothing balm, your words came through with the awesome power of the light.

I believed that Jesus, blessed be his name, died for my sins.

And even more wonderful, the dark side of evil can never ever reclaim me.

Africa

Thank you for the fascinating series on history.

Here at Western Kentucky about 20 of us look forward eagerly to Thursday evenings where we have a room reserved just to listen to your studies and discuss. They are perfect for an academic environment.

Art, music, science, history majors are all drawn like magnets for what they all can learn.

{"History of the World" series}

And at least three have been saved! Praise God! I love the clear Gospel message which you weave into every message.

Kentucky

Dear friends at Worldnet,

Your Bible studies have brought new life into my world. I am stationed in _____ with only a few others monitoring a sensitive situation. Obviously very stressful and anxious.

What an unexpected surprise to receive along with my brownies an iPod loaded with these wonderful messages. I assure you I am hearing God speak directly to me through you, giving me reassurance that God is with us and supporting what we are doing.

{History of the World #s 62, 64, 74}

Whereas before I dreaded the long hours of just waiting, now I savor every moment just listening to your messages of salvation through Jesus and our peace with Him. I love it all.

The jokes are great. Even the stupid ones!

You have brought joy to me and to the others who listen when then can wrestle my iPod away. They're writing home requesting iPods - loaded if possible.

May God bless you for the blessings you are providing a bunch of soldiers on this....

USM

Blessed ones, thanks god for to send us this perfect gift of the bible truths in mandarin. And also the Chinese bibls from you

Beijing, China

I googled to find Bible teaching and found your site listed all over the page.

I just listened to two of your messages. I have learned more in an hour and a half than I had learned in 20 years of being a Christian!
