May 2014

blessees to all you who teaching about jesus the one who was fine to be killed by evil ones for me

{Life of Jesus #s 58 & 59}

China

You are the best. Great times when I need them most

USM

Hey guys. I got saved listening to your lessons at the campfire.

Daryl told me I could come for free if I would listen to 3 lessons and give a report. I did it just for the free grub. Then I got hooked.

He showed me how to use the computer at the library. I'm the only freaky looking dude in here.

Thank you for giving me the message of salvation.

California

Your messages against the clear Scriptural teaching on the judgment seat are heretical.
Anonymous

Johnny's reply:

If you can point out one occurrence of the phrase "the judgment seat of Christ" occurring in the original text, I will recant what I have said.

We struggle to teach the truth and you continue to undermine our work. It's nothing but brainwashing.

Anonymous

Johnny's reply:

Professor, if you would be so kind as to point out what truths I am undermining I would be more than happy to discuss them with you in any format or venue of your choosing. As to the charge of brainwashing, I admit I do find it refreshing to wash my mind with the Scriptures and clean up the wrong teaching I have heard.

I appreciate the fact that you take your position with an understanding of the significance of what you are doing

May God richly bless you as you study and teach.

I hope you accept my offer to visit with you.

Johnny

I believe that we are forgiven in a judicial sense at the cross but not forgiven in a fellowship sense. I wish you would make that distinction.

{Addressed in the Life of Jesus series # 60}

Anonymous

Johnny's reply:

Please give me any Scripture describing those 2 types of forgiveness and I will make the distinction.

Fascinating insight into the duality of light in the "Cornerstone" presentation.

{Life of Jesus #52}

California

The "sons of listening" message was so powerful. Things I had never heard, or even thought of. I've listened 3 times and every time I hear something new. Just wanted to encourage you.

{I Peter #5}

Salutations and greetings dear friends in America.

I have been privileged to serve as your voice to Japan and surrounding Islands. Your lessons concerning the origins of various people groups have been extremely well received.

{History of the World #s 1-11, 18, 19}

The challenge, as you may well imagine is to bring your humor into the lessons. I have enlisted the aid of a Japanese comedian. He has very skillfully woven very amusing anecdotes and quips. The effect has been most remarkable.

Above all we have made diligent efforts to follow your example and present the gospel clearly and simply in every lesson.

The response has been tremendous, especially in the more remote areas.

May God continue to bless you.

Your servant

So a buddy gave me an mp3 player loaded with all of your jokes. So finally I asked him, is this guy a comedian? He said, no not really. He's more like a preacher but I've only listened to the jokes.

So I asked him, do you know where I can listen to him? He says I think the guy who made this may know. I'm like, so ask him man. Long story short. I got another one with the lessons and wow. I'm a saved born again man now. Who would have thought it?

USM

{All the letters below refer to lesson #8 in I Peter}

These messages are unbelievable. I've never heard anything like this teaching. Every lesson is packed with new insights. I find myself listening several times just to get it.

The Magic Jackets message was so powerful I'm on my third listening. And the music at the end - ZZTop! Are you kidding me! Awesome!

Thank you so much for the lesson "We are what we wear". It is a difficult concept but your illustrations and word analyses made it very clear. The ZZ TOP song is great.

Cincinnati, Ohio

Sharp Dressed Man. Great closing for an incredibly powerful sermon.

The Magic Jackets message was so exciting. This insight is fresh and original. Obviously the pastor doesn't read commentaries. "Sharp Dressed Man" was the icing on the cake!

I have enjoyed these studies for years. It's always new ways of thinking. My sister has listened to many as well. She is an art major and loved the impressionist studies. It's been so frustrating that the Gospel is presented clearly and simply in every sermon but she never got it. There was something about Magic Jackets that clicked. She got it and was saved! Maybe it was "Sharp Dressed Man". Awesome.

Friends back home: I've listened to so many of these lessons on an iPod. They have been a source of comfort and peace in very stressful times. Now I have an Internet connection and can go to the site. This is a gold mine. The Magic Jackets made perfect sense to anyone in uniform. And ZZ Top always fits. That was great.

June 2014

"Magic Jackets" was almost too much to absorb. I'm being facetious. It was so new I had to listen twice. The first time I took copious notes. The second time I would listen for a while then turn it off and just ponder what I heard. And.....Sharp Dressed Man. YES

{I Peter #8}

I never would have dreamed that a lesson on burnt offerings would be so good. The phrase "Don't look at me, look at Him" keeps resonating in my mind.

{I Peter #9}

South Korea

Warm greetings from your servant _____ in _____.

I have pastored a small church for several years. God has so blessed us during this time although the growth has been very slow.

By God's providence I was led to your teachings. What powerful Holy Spirit anointing. I began to present your teaching on the families of man.

{History of the World #s 4-6, 8, 11}

I concentrated on the family of Ham. The response has been overwhelming. God is using this understanding to reach out and draw former pagans into our group and many are being saved.

Dear brother, although you do not know me we are collaborators in the Kingdom. Continued blessings be upon you.

Africa

The seven letters below are in reference to lesson #11 in The First Peter series,
#11 “Human Government: Scriptural Authorization for Armies, Navies, Sealing Borders, and Pre-emptive Strikes against Terrorists”

I am calling every Christian radio station in the state (New York) and telling them to listen to the lesson on human government. Then I'm calling every conservative radio station. This HAS to go out

New York

Wow. I was mesmerized as I listened to the lesson about government. You systematically presented the Biblical case for protecting us from criminals and foreign enemies, including strikes against terrorists.

I have already taken a copy to the local radio station. The presentation was excellent, careful and calm.

Thank you so much

Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

Your message on human government was amazing. Everything I thought our government should do was verified. I am making copies on jump drives and passing them out.

I was referred to your website by a friend who was excited that you had made the Biblical case for border defense and for preemptive strikes against terrorists. Sorry but you didn't make the case for any of that. Might want to try again.

Belgium

What a powerful presentation on human government! I have sent the link to the radio stations I know of. This is must listening

I just found your lesson on government. I can't wait to get it to my son in Afghanistan. It was thrilling

New Hampshire

I am making copies of the government message and spreading them around. Love the Patton music (actually all the music).

I love the lesson about having an attractive outlook on life. {I Peter #10}

The power came from a gentle nurturing presentation without preaching. Just great.

The "Sharp Dressed Man" lesson was superb. {I Peter #8}

London, England

"Sharp Dressed Man" accomplished the unimaginable.

It saved my 70 year old hippie Father! {I Peter #8}

The 3 letters below are in reference to lesson #11 in The First Peter series,
11 “Human Government: Scriptural Authorization for Armies, Navies,
Sealing Borders, and Pre-emptive Strikes against Terrorists”

The lesson on human government blew me away. I am emailing the link to all my friends and trying to get it to some radio stations.

Great lesson on human government! I've emailed it to 115 people and I've just started.

Sir, your message on government, war and terrorism came straight from God.

I can't describe how much it lifted our spirits
